I can suggest a book below that sounds good to you at the moment, but after reading it, you can get bored. You can feel like you have wasted your time reading it. How do you want you could get those two weeks back. Don't worry, though, principles doesn't concern investment or entrepreneurship, even if you touch these areas. In substance, principles concerns how to succeed in whatever you do. However, I know that the teachings I have taken from Carnegie's book threw the foundations for how I interact with today's people. Remind me a quote from Ralph Waldo Emerson in which he says: A «I can't remember the books I read more than the meals I ate; However, they made me. "Times. I should have put it down as soon as I realized that it was a fiasco, but I wanted to continue for the good of my friend. This was made to hate me even more that someone will recommend a book that "has changed their lives." And, if I didn't consider it suitable, it will be strong and will be embarrassing and will say the friend who is not a good mating at the moment.
