Neighbours influence buying decisions

However objective we 0 _____ ourselves to be, most of us do not judge a product solely on its merits, considering quality, value and style before making a decision. 1 _____, we are easily influenced by the people around us.

There is nothing 2 _____ with this. It is probably a smarter way to make decisions than 3 _____ on only our own opinions. But it does make life hard for companies. They have 4 _____ understood that groups of friends and relatives tend to buy the same products, but understanding the reasons has been tricky. Is it because they are so similar with 5 _____ to how much money they make and what television ads they watch that they independently 6 _____ at the same decision? Or do they copy one another, perhaps 7 _____ envy or perhaps because they have shared information about the products?

Research in Finland recently found overwhelming evidence that neighbours have a big influence on buying decisions. When one of a person's ten nearest neighbours bought a car, the 8 _____ that that person would buy a car of the same brand during the next week and a half 9 _____ by 86 per cent. The researchers argued that it was not just a 10 _____ of envy. Used cars seemed to attract neighbours even more than new cars. This suggested that people were not trying to 11 _____ up with their neighbours, they were keen to learn from them. Since used cars are less reliable, a recommendation of one can 12 _____ influence a buying decision.
